Subject :- Remittance of NPS funds solely through electronic mode (NEFT/RTGS) from 1st April, 2014.

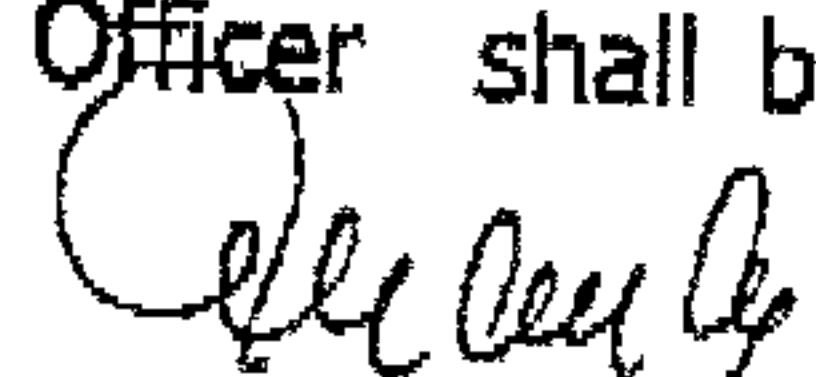

C I R C U L A R

The Deputy General Manager, Pension Fund Regulatory & Development Authority, New Delhi vide file No. PFRDA/20/11/1 dated 10th January, 2014 has intimated that under the extant system, remittance of NPS funds to the Trustee Bank (Axis Bank) is permitted through physical as well as electronic mode and it has been observed that the following problems are being faced on account of remittance of NPS contribution funds through physical instruments, thus affecting the time investment of funds :-

- a) Higher percentage of rejection of contributions/ funds return ;
- b) Delays due to cheque clearing activity ;
- c) Incidences of cheque rejection due to financial / technical reasons.

It has further been intimated that in order to obviate the aforementioned issues, Pension Fund Regulatory & Development Authority has decided to discontinue the remittance of NPS contribution funds through physical instruments and to accept remittance solely through electronic mode from 1st April, 2014. The circular instructions issued by the Pension Fund Regulatory & Development Authority, New Delhi under No. PFRDA/2014/01/CSG/1 dated 09.01.2014 are enclosed for ready reference.

All the Treasury officers are, therefore, enjoined upon to make remittances of New Pension Scheme funds solely through electronic mode (NEFT/RTGS) from 1st April, 2014. Any deviation of the change in system by any of the Treasury Officer shall be viewed seriously.
